

GLASS HOUSE - BOOKSHOP

Just a stones throw away from the Glass House, Brick Lane, the team behind Wuns Tea Room, Bun House and the Glass House wanted to create a ground floor bookshop with an open kitchen, a bespoke brick counter with a brand new state of the art dual podcast studio.

The biggest task the team had to undertake was to cut a large hole in the floor for another staircase to the new events area, the team then installed a new bespoke staircase supplied by Bluecrow Joinery.

A stunning new shopfront was installed made from solid oak with an Omnia clear top coat and 6mm toughened glass. An interesting addition was the acrylic box located in the window to allow drop off's of used books.
